Good mooning Sandford

I have spoken to the holocaust memorial organisation and will give them your book. They will no doubt acknowledge this. I personally thank you for making the effort to present this book to the Irish Jewish community and understand the effort you have made to do so.

If you know of any persons who have an Irish Jewish connection I would like to hear from them to have their family information added to our data base which now contains just over 50,000 individual entries.

I take this opportunity to wish you a good and Healthy New year

Kind regards

Stuart
